

Warbler arrivals in NE Ohio according to eBird Bar Charts 2010-2022. Some individuals may arrive earlier.

Bird numbers generally increase for the next couple weeks for migrants before dropping as birds move north.

1st week April:

- Louisiana Waterthrush
- Pine Warbler

2nd week April:

- Yellow-rumped Warbler
- Palm Warbler

3rd week April:

- Black-throated Green
- Yellow
- Yellow-throated

4th week April:

- Ovenbird
- Northern Waterthrush
- Blue-winged
- Black-and-white
- Prothonotary
- Orange-crowned
- Nashville
- Yellow
- Prairie

1st week May:

- Worm-eating (hard to find)
- Golden-winged
- Tennessee
- Common Yellowthroat
- Hooded
- American Redstart
- Cape May
- Cerulean
- Northern Parula
- Blackburnian
- Chestnut-sided
- Black-throated Blue

2nd week May:

- Mourning
- Kirtland's (hard to find)
- Bay-breasted
- Canada

3rd week May (best numbers):

- Wilson's
- Blackpoll

4th week May:

- Connecticut (but always hard to find)